your soul, and all your mind."*

Prayer Request

This month I am adding a few personal prayers and notes to this edition of the newsletter. Most of you know that my life is typically pretty busy, but lately it is even busier than normal! Hence the reason this newsletter is so late getting to you! We will consider this the February/March edition! I apologize up front for my dinginess (is that a word) and promise to make an effort to get organized and get on track...I would really appreciate prayers for school and my fellow nursing students. As we prepare to graduate we are facing several exams, state board reviews, and challenging clinical assignments. Also, Gabby and I have been asked to participate in a Christian retreat this spring. While we feel honored and blessed to be asked, this task requires a lot of our time and attention. Please pray that we make it through the planning phases and that Gabby and I are able to fulfill our assignments and be a blessing to those who will be attending the retreat. Further, since I am nearing the end of my education I am searching for a new job so please pray that God puts me somewhere that I can do good work and be a servant to him! As always let's lift up our military personnel and their families, I would like to remember my friend Tim and his family in the sudden and tragic loss of his father Jerry, and I would like for you guys to lift up one another our group as a whole and our church. Finally, I would like for you to pray for those who will be attending Triennium this summer. God Bless and as always if you need to get in touch with me feel free to call, email or text! Hillary
